THE EARLY CHILDHOOD STRATEGIC GROUP

The Early Childhood Strategic Group (ECSG) works to create an early care and education system for New York City. Universal Prekindergarten is an important resource linking the public education system and community based early childhood programs in local communities.

The ECSG developed this directory of programs to help organizations and school districts have better access to those who are providing UPK services in community based organizations across the city. The programs are organized numerically by the 32 community school districts. The listings indicate name of the program site, contact person, address, phone, fax and whether the center has other sources of funding – Head Start, Agency for Child Development, 4410, or private tuition.

We are hopeful that this directory provides a useful tool for early education professionals to continue their dialogue and collaboration in building a well-integrated early care and education system within their communities. The directory should also help parents seeking services in their community.

Sincerely,

Chuck Paprocki
Program Manager
ECSG
